Newsletter: November 2019 V2

DIRECTORS' NOTES

MR. ROSSER - 88! 88 BAPS students in grades 7th through 12th (39 from BAHS) qualified for second round all state auditions! What an amazing accomplishment. Good luck to those moving on to round two.

Remember the concert on the 5th of December is the Cookie Walk & Silent Auction. Invite friends and family to this event and encourage them to purchase gourmet cookies made by the families of BAHS & BAFA Choirs and bid on amazing items in our auction.

MS. CANTRELL - Please be sure that you are staying up-to-date on your payments. Students should be working hard to pass all classes so that they are eligible to compete. Students who are failing a class in December or are on the eligibility list will not be able to compete during the first 6 weeks of the Spring Semester. Please be sure to remind your student to maintain a high GPA.

We look forward to seeing you at the Treble Concert on 11/19 at Trinity Episcopal!

MRS. CORBIT - Students and choir families we hope that you will extend an invitation to all of your friends and family to our upcoming concerts. We encourage all members of our community to experience the magic of our Winter Formal concert and Show Choir Winter Concert. Students have worked tirelessly and there is nothing quite like getting in the holiday spirit than listening to these talented young people. See you there!!
